

New Fundraising Leads Changes at IFCS in 2019

Continuing our focus on being a fiscally responsible non-profit, we made several changes last year to better promote our mission, raise funding and sharpen our program's focus on helping those in need.

Kicking off these changes is the introduction of our One Can Feed virtual fundraising campaign. Through this campaign, we provide a simple marketing message to our donors and a compelling tagline of "One Can, Two Can, Who Can, You Can!" The results have been spectacular! Our individual contributions were up nearly $30,000 over last year for the fiscal year and we ended the year up even better.

Next, we re-branded our food bank into the Market at IFCS. This helps convey a message of not just giving out free bags of food, but rather a more upscale shopping environment for our clients as well as a more trendy name for our donors to support.

Finally, we are changing up our fundraising events to provide better return on investment and are eliminating little used programs from our marketing materials to streamline our messaging.

With your financial support, we can keep these changes moving forward to provide even more help, hope and dignity to families in need.
